MEMORANDUM FOR:

James G. Reber
Intelligence Requirements Officer

SUBJECT:

Appointment of CIA TALENT Control Officer

1. In order to make explicit the implication in the TALENT Control Security Manual that there is a CIA TALENT Control Officer, I hereby appoint you to that position.
2. Your responsibilities in regard to this office will continue to be substantially as they are, namely: (a) to make arrangements subject to my approval with the using agencies and offices of materials produced by AQUATONE including proper security procedures which have already been established formally through the TALENT Manual; (b) to make arrangements for the development of requirements on a continuing basis for the guidance of AQUATONE, to meet the needs of those who utilize TALENT materials, and (c) to carry out such other function as I may prescribe.
3. It is my understanding that in carrying out these functions you will work closely with the Security Officer for Operations and the TALENT Security Officer and secure the concurrences of them in all matters which bear upon the security aspects of the functions outlined above.
